PRESS RELEASE

We, the people from Manipur who are residing in and around Pune irrespective of religion, caste, colour, creed do need to form a common platform from where issues can be raised and/or problems can be solved together as well as to strengthen the sense of bonhomie and harmony amongst the people of India in general and Manipur in particular with its rich socio-cultural heritage of all caste and communities. The need of forming a common platform was felt to each of us and was a long pending dream. In view of the above fact, like minded persons from Manipur irrespective of religion, caste, colour, creed etc... who has attained the age of majority and self-employed, employed/retired either in the Central Government or Maharashtra Government or other reputed Institutions based in and around Pune formed a non-profit, non-government community organization named "Association of Manipuri Diaspora (AMAND), Pune" with the following persons as office bearer and founding members. The association was founded on the 11th day of September 2011 and has been registered under the Societies Registration Act 1860 at Pune, Maharashtra (Regd. No.- 643/2012/Pune).
